

"On my mother's dying bed, 92 years old, former sharecropper, her last words were, 'Do not let them take our votes away from us,'" he said, his voice rising. "She had fought and seen people harmed, beaten, trying to vote. Talk about inalienable rights. Voting is crucial. And I don't give a damn how you look at it: There are efforts to stop people from voting. That's not right. This is not Russia. This is the United States of America."

- Congressman Elijah Cummings, (1951-2019)
